Welcome Letter from Rachel Tainsh, our new Executive Head.

I am privileged and thrilled to have the opportunity to serve as your new Executive Head Teacher. The first time I visited the school I immediately knew that it was a special place. I consider it my privilege and honour to support the amazing teachers and staff at Runcorn All Saints so that they are able to provide your children with excellence in education.

I'd like to take a moment to share my first impressions and the reasons I accepted this position. Runcorn All Saints has several qualities that make the school exceptional:

- Every child is known by name and treated with respect and dignity. Staff know that a 'one size fits all approach' does not work and that every child is unique with different strengths and interests.
- This is a happy school where laughter abounds and a place where everyone loves to be.
- Christian values are at the heart of everything, and children have compassion for the wider world.

I am looking forward to a successful relationship with the All Saints community. You have an extraordinary group of children and I am eager to get to know each and every one.

Warmly,

Rachel Tainsh
